

K-Love is very important to our community. It provides encouragement, support, information, and a wide variety of services to its listeners. I listen to K-love almost exclusively and rely on it continually. There are many K-love listeners in our area who get counseling, prayer and are connected to needed services through K-love.